Heirs at Law and Terre Tenants of Silas C. Funk and Martha Dixon Funk, his wife, both deceased record owners of one-acre parcel of land and improvements, at Park Mills, Urbana District, Frederick County, Maryland, assessed in the name of Martha Dixon Funk, and all persons having or claiming to have any interest in said property.

(Indorsed) --

No. 17835 - Equity.

The object of this proceeding is to secure the foreclosure of all rights of redemption in the following property: three-fourths acre, more or less, and any improvements, at ~~park~~ Park Mills, in Urbana District, Frederick County, Md., assessed to Martha Dixon Funk; see deed Julia A. Thompson, al., to Martha E. Dixon, April 13, 1881, Lib. A.F. 3, fol. 374, sold by the Collector of Taxes for the County of Frederick and State of Maryland to the Complainants herein.

The bill alleges that some of the Defendants are residents of the State of Maryland and that some of ~~them~~ their names and addresses are unknown.

The bill states further, among other things, that the amounts necessary for redemption have not been paid, although more than a year and a day from the date of sale has expired.

It is thereupon, this 28th day of April, 1954, by the Circuit Court for Frederick County, in Equity,

Ordered That notice be given by the insertion of a copy of this Order in some newspaper having a general circulation in Frederick County aforesaid once a week for four successive weeks, warning all persons interested in the said property to be and appear in this Court by the 30th day of June 1954, and redeem the property referred to and described herein and answer the bill, or thereafter a final decree will be rendered foreclosing all rights of redemption in the property, and vesting in the Plaintiffs a title, free and clear of all encumbrances.
